Roman & Modernist Cartagena walking tour (3-4 hours)

Overview:

The history of one of the great ancient cities is sure to form a lasting impression as you experience the archaeological wonders of Cartagena.

Cartagena was settled in 223 BC and flourished under Carthaginian, Roman and byzantium rule.

Cartagena offers a vast cultural legacy acquired over 3000 years and offers numerous cultural possibilities to discover.

Apart from ancient archaeological sites, there is a wonderful collection of XVIIIth century Neoclassical Military Architecture as well as late XIXth century Modernist palaces.

-In this tour you may enter and visit the Roman Theater and Museum, medieval castle with panoramic lift, City Hall Palace and Roman Forum. (group reduced price 9€pax)

- You will also experience the recent history of XIXth century Modernism present in every doorway, window, and in every building along the pedestrian area in the heart of the city.

Guide fees: 10€pax (minimum 100€, maximum 150€)
