Tour: Murcia & Cartagena : A Romance of Two Cities (7 hours tour)

Overview:

Murcia's medley of Gothic, Baroque and Renaissance architecture and Muslim remains combined with the charming scenery of the Sierrade Carrasco foothills make this guided tour a memorable one on its own. We will visit the Cathedral, Bishop Palace, the Royal Casino, the Shrine of Fuensanta on the mountains and will enjoy a cloffe or lunch in the baroque Plaza de Belluga. We combine this tour with an after lunch visit to the historical city of Cartagena where we would have a complete panoramic drive and stroll in the city centre where we will admire Roman ruins, the impressive Roman Theatre, the 18th century military building and the beautiful late 19th century palaces of the city centre.

- *The tour may start in Murcia or in Cartagena
- * Roman theatre and Museum entrance: 5€pax
- * Optional entrance to Royal Casino: 3€pax
- * This schedule could be adapted to a 5 hour-tour if we reduce the places to visit in both cities.
- * Guide Fees: 12€pax (minimum 120€ up to a maximum of 200€)
